

THURSDAY EVENING, JAN. 14.

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as secondclass matter.

BF BRANCH OFFICES.
WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1907 BROADWAYbetween 21st and 32d sts., New York
BROOKLIN-305 WARRINGTOR ST. HARLEM-News Department, 150 hast 125ru St. Adver tisements at 23T East 11-78 St.
PHILADELPHIA, PA.—LEDGER BUILDING, 117
BOUTH 61-8 St. WASHINGTON—610 1-78 St.
LONDON OFFICE—31 LUCKSTUB St., TRAVAL

The Evening World Prints Asso

FOR A SUNDAY LICENSE LAW. THE EVENING WORLD has expressed just discrimination against those people privileges in the matter of securing on those whose names do not end in "off," end account for children. Intanta' cloaks are one certain day of the week beverages to in "ski; secondly, that Nihilism is the great often made in the handsomest bengaline, the moderate use of which they have topic of discussion in fashi nable drawing-become accustomed; second, because rooms, and thirdly that the mines of Siberta being thus unjust in what it was meant to are perpetually yawaing. Hang the mines of by feather stitching. Stheria, I say! We suffer as much from them

They must not be so drawn or condi- that you are closely adjoining the Morto tioned as to operate unequally upon men Bouse, where you can get a drink of Russian whose circumstances and surroundings tea-ski between the acts if you want it.

The heroine of the play is Liana, and the public demand for the privilege of havnot of club or hotel circles there and keep the original. Of course he drops the should be extended the privilege of original and it falls into Liana's hand.

An intelligent woman, who didn't live in hold use on Sunday, as they may do on or in their little rocial circles.

To so form the statute that this privitice and right. It should be the act of the present State Legislature.

TC-DAY'S EMINENT DEAD.

residence. ALBERT VICTOR, Duke of Clardied at Rome.

In the death of Cardinal MANNING his cast do not call for mention. ALAN DALE. Church and the world at large are heavily afflicted. He was not only an emment and faithful priest, but a pre-emmently faithful man in all his relations to his

In the passing away of ALBERT VICTOR lish throne is broken and the title of heir Prince. The young man whose untimely can reimburse them. decease is mourned by the royal family and its friends has done nothing to particularly distinguish him in the eyes of the world. He has become more widely known than ever before, however, since the recent announcement of his engagement to the Princess May of Teck.

That betrothal lends a sad sentimental feature to the incident of the young Prince's death. In England, sympathy with the now-mourning Princess is especially deep and general, as she has long been a pronounced favorite and doer of kindly deeds among the working people of the Kingdom.

In the death of Cardinal SIMEONI, the long been especially prominent in her mainst and author of "Good Things from highest official affairs.

as a sacrifice to restore peace in "bleeding Kansas," where, of late, the Seward county-seat war has raged with many words and some bloodshed. Such resignation, in a double sense, forms an example worthy of the bench from which surgeon Rober for decision. Don't quarre Judge Botkin will retire.

One day Mr. Millis attacks Mr. Cleve. LAND, the next he assails Mr. Hill. And just a little while ago the men who defeated him in his Speakersh p contest, as he alleges, he arrangued as fit subjects for exemplary rebuke. Mr. Millis seems Gleaner would advise him to go armed. bound to cultivate a very cordial unpopularity.

Dr. Flavrus M. Wilden was shot dead in Chicago by a crang who had been discharged as cured from an asyluta. It appears that a good time to look out for very many lunstice is after they have AFirm "Grip" been labelled " discharged cured.

"Bliss is for Dr Ew," says the morning paper, anent the Union League Club state of many salvised me to try Hood's Sarvised to try Hood's fight. But there will be much more bliss parilia. Folded I used a bottes and in two for Derrw if, eventually, the cruel war mentle I was a well man. I think so much of revolution Meanwhile Ganza laughs at the efforts of the Mexican and Amerian soldiers to capture him and put his evolution down. It remains to be seen who will laugh fast

President Diaz Alicules the Garza Gowpt, City Bill Pester, he Dyville, Ill.

The second course of popular free lectures in the previously designated public schools of the city will begin next Mon-SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD day evening. On that evening all the lectures will be illustrated with stereopticon views.

> It is good news that, after all, fifty people were saved from the lost steamer Namchow. How bad is the news that at east four hundred were lost few of us at this distance are prepared to realize.

Arion is coming East, and there is Bedford cording or camel's Lair in the light whisper that he may attack Sunoi's shades, have the various seams of the skirt There is promise already of great things for the trotting season of

Yes. New York's outlaws are going.

---"COUNTESS ROUDINE."

The play entitled "Counters Roudine," that was presented for the first time in this ity last night at the Union Square Theatre. would never have been written had there been no " Fedora" and a few other Sardou itself as advocating the adoption of a imitation of the great French dramatist, moderate Sunday license provision in the without the excuse of great literary ability. Excise Law of the State for two principal It deals with Russia, to which land the reasons: First, because the enforcement authors have apparently been no nearer tabs like the garments of their elders, and of the present law would involve an un. than the Cunard dock. Russia is a fearfully abused country at the hands of or cord borders the tiny boots, which are just discrimination against those people playwrights. Miss Maddern and Mr. Kister made in satin, kid and many of the fine wool-who have not certain home, club or hotel know three things about it: Firstly, that len cloths that are turned to so profitable an secomplish, the Sunday prohibition clause has become practically incapable of enforcement, and so has caused a lessened general respect for the Excise distinctly that you are in Fourteenth street, Laws which seek to regulate the affairs near Pourth avenue, and all the tank about of a people must regulate for all alike. the mines of siberia does not make you forget whose circumstances and surroundings differ. A prohibition by statute cannot in the light of free government be consistently operative in the case of one free man and not so in the case of another.

The heroine of the play is Liana, and the hero Count Moronoff. Liana is the affianced wife of Sagenoff, an ugly little man who wears a red ribbon and a prize-packet jewel man and not so in the case of another. Moreover, the laws by which a great ing at the head of a conspiracy, and Liana, people governs itself must conform to who is old enough to know better, has fallen the most popular conditions and senti- in love with him in a truly Juliet manner. ment, as either expressed in practice or As she has piedged herself to discover the strongly implied through circumstance. Workings of the conspiracy, this is un-Conviction that there was a sufficient pleasant. She has promised to coax from him public demand for the privilege of hay public demand for the privilege of hav-ing certain Leverages served at hotel and ered nothing. Sagenoff, who is distinctly vilrestaurant dining-tables on Sunday was lainous, and who made his first entrance with sufficient to secure a modification of the a pair of tau kid gloves and a cigar, as all Excise Laws to that end. There is con-yinging evidence on every band of a force from Liana. He espies them and depopular desire that to men clares that he will send the copy to the police purchasing at lawful sale for their house. An intelligent woman, who didn't live in a nets frequently includes strings, which are land where these whose names do not end nets frequently includes strings, which are they are accustomed to use on their tables determined to frighten Sagenoff by forging arranged with that clean sleight of hand that any other day of the week, the beverages fatal paper instantly. Not so Liana. She his name to this original list of conspirators, and threatening to send it to the police if he lege will be secured will be an act of just does not burn all the evidence he has. This act is very interesting if you do not stop to satin or watered silk; a decided reaction in consider that it is founded upon an absurdity. is also weak and chestnutty.

Medicaka as Liana did excellent work, her Death found three shining marks this hysterical laughter at the end of the third act morning. His Eminence, HENRY ED- being particularly effective. This actress is WARD MANNING, Cardinal Priest of the always an artist. No playwrights need wish Roman Catholic Church and Archbishop for better luck than to have their plays interof Westminster, died at his Archiepiscopal preted by this charming lady. T. B. Thalberg, residence. Alveur Victor, Duke of Clar. the leading man, was very bad. He spoke in a ence and Avoidale, eldest sou and heir to the Prince of Walles and probable future in " As You Like it," was simply grotesque as King of England, died at Sandringham sagenoff. His poses were awfully tunny, and Hall, his father's country seat. Cardinal his gestures worthy of James Owen O'Conor. SIMBONI, ex-Papal Secretary of State. Mr. Lane is a good actor, but he is apparently in excellent voice, and she entered into the good only in classic roles. The others in the

THE GLEANER

The officers of the wrecked United States evenue cutter Gallatin met with a greater oss than any one outside of the service had any idea of. It appears that besides five new the regular line of succession to the Eng- sets of uniforms, they each lost a month's salary. The disaster means a less to each presumptive falls to Prince Gronge, the one of from three to five hundred dollars, and sailor, a younger brother of the dead nothing less than a special act of Congres

A Fulton street merchant, speaking of the on Sing root, sometimes called "Jeng Sing, rom which the chinaman makes a decoctio hat he believes will give him second life ells me that the root is scarcer this Winter han has been known for years. This be speaks misery for our laundry friends.

I see that Coroners Levy and Messemer are ill with the grip, as are Cierks Fred Hart and George Cook, of the Coroner's office. It may be serious for Coroner Messemer in his pres ent run-down condition. Deputy Coroner conway escaped the grip, but has fallen into the clutches of rheumatism.

Thomas Murray, better known to newspaper Church of Rome loses a prelate who had men of this city as "Terrapin Tom." ex-jour-"hattog-Dish," is striving for proprietorship of the House restaurant in Washington. He Judge Bothix offers his judicial head has an opponent in a Washington caterer but feels conndent of winning.

> "Can horse's carns be cared?" is the subjecan argument between President Gallup and commissioner Dana of the Park Board The matter was finally referred to Veterinary bout it, gentlemen, they can be cured. Cut them out.

Sergt, Dunn, our local weather sharp, 1 seauled for a lecture on the weather in the wark high behad hext Monday evening. nices he can scare up some better weather than ne has been kiving us this week the

Lacks a Family Tree, Ferhaps. | From the Euches or Proto-Repress Why isn't Garsa elicible for members, ip in

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Delight the Gentler Sex

Street Gowns with Lapped Seams Knote and Bows for Hats-Violets and Sable Furs - Earrings Worn in Lace Trimmings.

More elaborate street gowns of ladles' cloth, lapped, stitched twice, and the hem finished in a like manner. The coat basque has lapped with jacket fronts opening over a pointed the coat, and stitching ornaments the collar are worn in the lace trimmings of theatre and opera bonnets. The effects of a solitaire diamond twinkling in the tolds of a lace rosette or a chiffon bow is very striking.

The latest agony on the 5 o'clock tea table l'aui Kister, and it is an absurdly slavish is a loat of bread with a pink cravat tied in Bables' pelisses are cut with the favorite are likewise edged with cord. A finer make made in satin, kid and many of the fine woolplate and brocaded, with a short cape over a long one, and trimmed with rich lace, headed Knormoes sleeves are worn in the modern dress for evening.

Very little hair and a great deal of shell and amber pins with India gold heads is the prevailing idea in head-dressing.

The following letter, written to a friend in

New York, explains itself:

"My DEAR Mrs. Colay: I have the lovelless New York, explains to the lovellest girl bady in the world, a perfect exponent of my theories. She has the most wonderful muscular and vital strength, and does at her age what you expect of children much older. She has held up her head unaided since she was two hours old and turned about at will. She proves what healthful dress means to motherhood. Most affectionately.

Annie Jenness Miller.

Annie Jenness Miller.

Annie Jenness Miller.

Annie Jenness Miller.

Tauts.

For hats there are regular garnitures, now composed of two bows or rosettes joined by a twisted ribbon, now of a ruching of ribbons closed behind by a bow into which curved cock's feathers are sometimes introduced. The ribbon trimming both for nats and bonnets frequently includes strings, which are worn for the former as well as the latter. In no amateurs can imitate. They are provided in all colors, and in two or three widths, the ribbon of which they are made being of faille favor of moire has been manifest within the sagenoff's mistake about the original papers | last few weeks, not only for ribbons, but also as a dress tabric.

"FIDELIO."

Reethoven's somewhat lethargic opera "Fidelio" was sung last night at the Metro politan Opera-House, in Italian, by Mr. Abbey's company. It is essentially German, and the additional fact that the leading roles were entrusted to Mme Lilli Lehmann and Herr Kalisch must have made the occasion very dear to German opera lovers. Mme Leh-mann made an admirable Leonora. She was spirit of the part as sh always de trio in which she sang with Edouard de Reszke and Herr Kalisch was delightful. Kalisch sang well. He is not a great artist but he is fairly reliable and generally fulfile he requirements of the roles he is called upon to interpret. Edouard de Reszke was et tirely praiseworthy as Rocco. The other members of the cast were Mile. Bauermeister sig. Magini-Coletti, Sig. Rinaldini and Sig.

The chorus was wretched. How is it that more attention is not paid to this important performance. This season it has been principally engaged in the task of marring.

Periodical and Profitable. [From the Chicago Post.] John L. Sullivan's periodical awear-offs are becoming about as frequent as Mmc. Patti's positively farewell tours. There is money in

The Title Is General.

Kate Pield's Washington classifies society gossip under the heading "People and Things." This seems to include the dudes all

Each Spoonful

AS done its perfect work, is the verdict of every women who has used Royal Baking Powder. Other baking powders soon deteriorate and lose their strength, owing to the use of inferior ingredients, but Royal Baking Powder is so carefully and accurately compounded from the purest materials that it retains its strength for any length of time, and the last spoonful in the can is as good as the first, which is not true of other baking powders.

Fads, Fancies and Fashions That "Evening World" Readers Told How Husbands Are Managed.

> Widespread Interest in a Delicate Domestic Problem.

Interesting Letters from Both Married and Single Women.

Sorosis's query, "How Shall a Husband Be Managed?" now being discussed by women Who read THE EVENING WORLD, is receiving seams, is without hip seams and very long, many and widely varied responses, as illustrated by those printed below. Women feel vest of alk. Pearl buttons trim the sides of deep interest in the subject and letters come to the editor from all over the land.

All letters received, whether printed or not, will be considered in awarding the prize. Earrings, now out of fashionable ear lobes. The contest is governed by the following: CONDITIONS.

> THE EVENING WORLD will give a gold double engle to the woman teho shows best. How to Manage a Husband." The plan must be contained in two hundred words, written on one side of the paper, hate the writer's name and address that necessarily or publication, and be directed to HUSBAND EDITOR, EVENING WORLD, PULITZER BUILDING

I would marry a man, not a brute, to be gorged with highly seasoned and tempting viands; not an idiot, to be flattered and ca-joied into thinking himself the "Great I Am." A gentleman will treat his wise with the any low, coarse mandeuvrings for management if she is a lady.

Frances,
Nyack, N. Y.

should a woman live long enough and be come a widow a nundred times, so many di terent ways would she have to employ to Treat your husband just as nicely when company. Be kind and loving and ladylike in Avoid nagging at him and telling him what nice dresses or cloaks some other wile has when you know the poor fellow is doing his best for you.

I have done this for nearly six years, and our married life is a very happy one. My husband never needed managing, and he is my lover as well as husband. Harry.

THE DECOY.

The Major's Visitor-Ah! Major, this spor of yours is grand-this coursing the coyote. factor in the success of an opera? The chorus The Major-Yaas: But the queer thin has it in its power to make or mar an operatic about it is I always lose my dogs in that belt

Chief Pour Stomachs-Wow!

ame coyete for nothing. She Found an Explanation. "You see, Mrs. Oliriz," said the sauve young man, "they called them 'Canaanites' because they came from Canasa. "Oh. I understand," said the old lady, affabiv. "There's semething that Mr. Oliriz knowed and I didn't." "Indeed?"

"Yes. If had heard that you spent several years in Paris, and he spoke of you yesterday
as a 'Parisite."

A Careful Young Man. Mrs. Chinner-Why does young Mr. Gurley always knock at the door when he comes to call on you?

Miss Chinner—He's afraid if he comes with a ring l'il regard it as a proposal.

Bobby-Pa, what does it mean when it says man's estate was divided according to law?
Pa-it means. Bobby, that the beirs of the dead man get what is left after the lawyers get through.

(From Confr.)
" Are you sure the world is round, papa?" "Yes, my son."
"Well, then, how can it come to an end?"

French as She's Used. (From the Jeveliers' Circular.)
Mrs. Billisdoo—I think Alice has a very Mrs. Bullion-Yes, she has a nice rep

Singular Accident to a Dancer in the Xavier Club's Anniversary Celebra-"Miss Helyett" Company.

Scene in "Blue Jeans."

fore the opening of the play. Knocking about the green common of the theatre for many years on the state of the contract with any many up, and instead of the pathetic race of the old Indiana cobbler's daugnter, the audience saw confronting them the peculiar physiogony of the hero of New Orleans. It took Jennie Yeamans's quick wit to save the situation with an apt interpolation that disarmed a good portion of the audience.

Instit funny that Dan Prohman doesn't announce "Lady Bountirul" as being "by the audience "Lady Bountirul" as being "by the audience who will a may a chance for a purse author of 'The Cabinet Minister' as "by the audience with any billing at Daily's," and that Daily Seant and the last of the great and street, and any think't may end that way yet.

The situation and based of the pathetic the remained shaped of the pathetic face of the contract with any by the say the pathetic face of the cold Indiana cobbler's daugnter, the situation with an apt interpolation that disarmed a good portion of the audience.

Instit funny that Dan Prohman doesn't announce "Lady Bountirul" as being "by the sauthor of 'The Cabinet Minister' as "by the author of 'The Cabinet Minister' as "by the author of the Capt will make it a battle full of interest.

Instit funny that Dan Prohman doesn't announce "Lady Bountirul" as being "by the sauthor of 'The Cabinet Minister' as "by the author of 'The Cabinet Minister' as "by the author of the end of the one of the entre the present season. The last of the remained many by this way season. The proposed that a battle full of interest.

Instit funny that Dan Prohman doesn't announce "Lady Bountirul" as being the first course this season was invariable extures an the sectures and the former subject: "The unit is assorted the preparation of the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the propo Iso'tif funny that Pan Fronman operat and counce "Lady Bountiful" as being "by the author of 'The Cabinet Minis'er,' now running at Daiy's," and that Daiy doesn't advertise "The Cabinet Minister" as "by the author of 'Lady Bountiful, now at the Lyceum." Such little fraternal courtestes would be delightful.

Manager Canby, of Francis Wilson's Con-Manager Canbr, of Francis Wilson's Com-pany, has been studying the adjectives that the critics have bestowed upon the members of the organization. He has discovered that Jansen monopolizes the words "lettle" and "chie;" Laura Moore is "plump" and "chie;" Laura Moore is "plump" and "vocaliy interesting;" Churicis Plunkert is, as a rule, "dapper" and Wilson is "Wilson-esque," "the only," "agile, "chirruly," "swassing," "ever-tresh" and "percanial." "It all goes, I presume," remarked Mr. Canby, with managerial philosophy.

Little Miss Marie Cahill has been skirt-dancing in "Miss Helyett" under great diffi-cuties. She burst a blood vessel in her leg during a high kick and suffered a great deal of pain. Miss Cahill persisted in dancing, however, and did not succumb to her injury until last night.

. . comedies in town, playing to " standing-root only."

. . . Miss Louise Litta, who is an American ac tres, when she is not in America, is again in England introducing a play entitled "Frieda; or, The Little German Girl." Doet recollect the little Litta at the Park Theatre a short

ANNIE JENNESS MILLER."

Violets and sable fur is a combination in millinery that only helresses can afford.

Knots and bows of ribbon ready to trim hats or bonnets always find a ready sale.

For hats there are regular garnitures, now composed of two bows or rosettes ioleed by a lim." Should be come home vexed by bust my husband point the best way to "manage gas men, electric light expenses, lime-light, wardrobe men and paint-room artists.

The Nahan Opera Company, including Va-The Nahan opera Company, including Var Zandt, Scalehi, Pettigiani, Vinche, Cartone Vaschetti and Valero, give a performance o "Mignon" at the Hyperion Theatre, New Haven, te-night. They will return to this city to-morrow.

asked one of the Hialto-ese of Francis witson the other day.
Wilson looked at his questioner sadly and then replied; "We at first thought it would be bones of production contention, but they now enjoy a diet of sawdust and make-up

A London wig-maker who was asked what A London wig-maker who was asked what was the most popular color of hair on the stage replied that he made three fair wigs to one dark one. "Fair bair," he said, "makes people look younger on the stage, lied wigs are also very popular with some of our leading stage artists. Mass Florence 8t. John. for instance, and Miss Kate Vaughn, are very fond of what is called Venetian red hair. Ellen Terry wore a wig of that color as Lady Macbeth. It is an artistic color." The most expensive wig made by this firm cost $235.

J. K. Emmet, son of the late comedian, the well-known "Fritz," will make his "ret appearance in Brooklyn, at the Academy of Music next Monday night.

ZION CHURCH GUTTED BY FIRE. HUNT SUCCEEDS HIMSELF.

"Mr. Barnes of New York" will follow the Liliputians at the Amphion. The Madison Square Theatre success, "Jane," will open at the Lee Avenue Academy next Monday night. At Holmes's Star Theatre next Monday evening Charles Bowser will be seen in "Birds of a Feather." Neille McHenry, who is now playing "A Night at the Circus" at this house, will move over to the cosy Bed-ford Avenue Theatre.

Advertised to Our Loving Friends. (From Judge, ]
Edith—Do you believe it does any good to romen when they lose their husbands to wear such heavy crape vells?

Ruth—Yes, indeed. If I hadn't been wear-ing one when I happened to pass George in Paris he'd never have come back to me.

WORLDLINGS

Mrs. Lee C. Harby, the author, is a native of work on American history to last for future genera-tions, and for the past three years she has spent much time collecting data on the early history of meais.

THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR. SECRETS OF WIVES. GOSSIP OF THE GREENROOM. SPORTING NOTES AND NEWS. POPULAR FREE LECTURES.

Ben Butler's Picture Marred a Capt. Williams's Experience with Arrangements Made for the Seathe Heavy-Weight Boxers.

tion to Last Three Nights.

Jeans" was cruelly marred a night of two last set is a pricture on the sail, with its white back to the audience. It is a portrait of self-willed much to put Corbett and Maher in the ring, and many think it may end that way yet.

The talk of reinstating the athletes who were disqualified for taking part in the recent games of the Seventh Regiment is causing a great deal of comment among members of the smaller clubs. The majority of the Board of Managers of the A. A. U. are against such a course. Secretary Sunivan, in giving his lower with a course. Secretary Sum and the laws and the The A. A. U. must stand by its laws and the The A. A. U. must stand by its laws and

Billy Meeks, the well-known walker of the Columbia Athletic Club, is getting into form for the Spring games. He can turn his mile in the form now, and will no doubt add many Fortieth Street Burned.

Patrolman Lenahan, of the East Thirtyfifth street station, saw flames shooting through the roof of the German Zion Presbyerian Church, 135 and 137 East Fortieth erian Church, 135 and 137 East Fortieth street, at 1.30 this morning. He reached the nearest box and turned in an alarm at 1.37. Commissioner Adolph L. Sanger was the nearest box and turned in an alarm at 1.37.

the edifice ablaze from floor to roof. Battalion Chief Fisher at once ordered a second and a third alarm, and Chief Bonner with plenty of auditional apparatus, was quickly at hand. Although the firemen worked manfully and did not conquer the fire until it burned through the roof in a score of places. It was an obstinate blaze, and gave the Department the gravest apprehension because of the danger to residential property in the victiange.

The four-story brick dwelling 133 East of Fortiers street, adjoining the cauren, is cell cupied as a training school for female nurses.

tions, and for the past three years she has spent much time collecting data on the early history of Texas.

Secretary Rusk's daughter takes full charge of his boneshold, doing all the marketing, hiring the servants and superintending the table. She is also very fond of reading.

It is said that lire Warren, wife of the Wyoming Senator, has voted for twenty years. She declares that it is no more trouble to go to the polis than to go to church, and makes the statement that women make fewer mistakes in using the Australian system in Wyoming than the men do.

A story is tool of a Texan pony that found the watch lost by his owner and brought it to him in his month.

An idea of the size of the Vatican may be gained by the statement that there are no fewer than 1,422 rooms in it.

Just, specks and insects eggs belong to some Oatmerals.

Just, specks and insects ago and was one of the oldest structures in the first of the pulpit and the pastor's study, and communicating to the walls of the min and difform reached to and burst out through the flow of the pulpit and the pastor's study, and communicating to the walls of the min the numbers of the Union Leagu and their thoughts.

Just, specks and insects ago and was one of the oldest structures in the course, and the twenty of thirty occupants were timporarily allayed by the fire. Section of the pulpit to a bright the strongest personal in the thought the flow was in progress.

At a o'clock the fire was under control, although the department was not ordered away until two hours later.

An inspection of the premises this forence on showed that the fire must have started in the order of the pulpit and the church, leaving the furnace door open, as is his custom.

Nobody visited the school of the church leaving the furnace door open, as is his custom.

Nobody visited the church leaving the furnace and the fire the department was not ordered away thill two hours later.

Nobody visited the church leaving the furnace of the pulpit and the pastor's study, and communicating to the the roof.

The church was built a great many years ago and was one of the oldest structures in that vicinity. The Murray Hill Presbyterian Society, of which the late Key. Dr. Burchard was the pastor, occupied the church until 1886, when the German Zion Presbyterian Society took the edince. Rev. F. E. Voegein, of 226 East Thirty-ninth street, is the present pastor.

The church is owned by the New York Presbytery and was valued at $15,000. A loss of $10,000 was caused to the building and books and records by fire and water, all of which is amily covered by insurance. Fireman Edward Levy, of Truck 7, of East Portleth street, was struck in the right wilst by failing glass. His arm was badly cut.

The Board of Trustees of the Church will meet to-night at Pastor Voegelin's house to consider measures for obtaining a temporary place of worship.

No Time for Words.

No Time for Words.

[From Life. ] Judge-Have you anything to say why sentence of death should not be passed upon you? Prisoner (haughtily)—If I have anything to may I'll say it in my autibiography.

son's Second Course.

Two Young Ladies Added to the List of Able Speakers.

the audience. It is a portrait of self-willed with little success.

The Olympic club is very anxious to get a ducts the free lectures for the Board of Educts. Tutewiler turned to the wall fifteen years be-fore the opening of the play. Knocking about Fitzsimmons, who is now in New Orleans, lectures for the present season. The list of

The lectures are neld to the following school that are anxious for a mater. Starting and 38 City Hall place; No. 23, at 48 West The Board of Your pounds, and will therefore give Jack Starting to be beaut of four pounds.

The Xavier Athletic Club is getting ready to celebrate its anniversary, and Fresident all they can do to handle the many details, and at the least three cays, Jan. 27, 28 and 29.

The first evening the Club will hold a meltic exhibitions. The second evening an entertain-and will consist of boxing and other athletic exhibitions. The second evening an entertain-and meltic in the stage of the starting the starting that the coming anniversary celebration will be the most successful event by the Club.

The talk of reinstaing the athletes who were disqualified for tasking that the recent games of the exhibitions.

The talk of reinstaing the athletes who were disqualified for tasking part in the recent games of the exhibition.

The talk of reinstaing the athletes who were disqualified for tasking part in the recent games of the exhibition.

The talk of reinstaing the athletes who were disqualified for tasking part in the recent games of the exhibition.

The talk of reinstaing the athletes who were disqualified for tasking part in the recent games of the exhibition.

The talk of reinstaing the athletes who were disqualified for tasking part in the recent games of the other than the control of the seventh for the seventh buildings; No. 3, corner of Grove and Hudson

Dr. James E. Newcomb... Emergencies of Daily Lite."

Mr. Clarence Pullen... New Mexico."

Mr. Ste hen Helm... Small Builders in the views, said:

The a. A. U. must stand by its laws and "The a. A. U. must stand be a. A. U. must stand by its laws and "The a. A. U. must stand by its laws and "The a. A. U. must stand by its laws and "

Interior of the Old Edifice on Re-elected President of the School Board by Eleven Votes.

> Prof. John L. N. Hunt has been re-elected President of the Board of Education, and the element in that body which has been pleased to denominate itself "Progressive" is, in con-

When the firemen arrived they burst in the candidate of the Progressists, and he had condidors, and found the rear of the interior of fidently counted on the support of nine of the old members, as well as that of Messra.

old members, as well as that of Messra. Crosby, Knox and Wenrum, the Commissioners appointed by Mayor Grant last November.

Those gentlemen all voted for the re-election of President Hunt, however, and their action gave him just the cleven votes necessary for a choice.

Buring the hot canvass there was much talk of political interference, and there was some grumbling this morning and a suggestion that Messra. Cosby, Knox and Wehrum the two latter members of Tammany Hall), had been appointed by Mayor Grant with the understanding that they would vote for President Hunt. The Mayor had interfered, it was said, because President Hunt had supported him when Mr. Grant was attacked by Senator Fassett last Fall.

The Mayor's friends laugh at this suggestion, and point to the fact that one of his strongest personal triends in the Board—Commissioner Strauss—supported Sangor. flooded the burning church with water, they

IT IS PLATT AGAINST DEPEW

Politics Said to Figure in Union League's Election.

Members of the Union League Club have an lection fight on for to-night that is absorbing all their thoughts and attention. Those who oppose the re-election of President Chauncey M. Depew are in the field with a full ticket headed with the name of Cornelius

It is said that Johnny Davenport, the po-

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria When she became Miss, she clung to Casteria When she had Children, she gave them Conton

FROM THE WORLD OF LABOR.

The meeting day of the Shirtmakers' Union has been changed from Satur ay to Friday.

The Fightler Decorating Company has settled with the Frence Painters Union and union wages will be paid by the concern in the future.

The Pantsmakers Union has called a mass-meeting to be held at New Irving Hall, 214 Brooms street, next Saturday in the atternoon. August Delahar, as Transurer of the New York Federation of Labor, has, so far, collected $170.25 for the striking printers in Germany.

Bakers' Union No. 31 has been successful in its strike in the shop at 261 Rivington atrees, where the "acube" nave been compelled to join the organization.

The Progress Association of Steam-Fitters' Heip-ers will cave its annual reception and ball at Ularen-tics that on Monday evening, Jan. 28. Alexander Martin is manager of the reception.

A strike of union carpenters at a building at Fourteenth street, near Avenue C, on account of the employment of three non-union men, was settled restorday by the dismissal of two of the cable and the enrolment of the other into the union.

Workers will be elected.
The central body of the United Hebrew Trades'
Unitons has requested the Central Labor Federation to organize the German passementeries workers. The new officers are: B. Weinstein,
Secretary; Miss Sarah Finkerstein, Trasurer;
Musars. Hetenson, Danielwitch, Rosenson,
Liberman and Lewtky, Organizing Committee;
Mesors, Wayman, Holzseger, Cooper and Rosenbatt Examining Committee.

The Building Trades Section of the Central Labor Union instructed its Secretary yesterday to request the Board of Walking Delegates to aid Delegate killing, of the United Stone-Sectics' Union in ob-taining the wages due to men employed on a build-ing in One Hundred and Thirty-second street, be-tween Pifth and Sixth avenues. The sum owing to ing it One Hundred and Thirty-second street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues. The sum owing the men, Delegate Killica stated to the Section, exceeds $300, and overs month has slapsed since the inoney was due. The delegates with the matter in the matter in the matter of the control of the Carcoli, Raimes, Carcoli, Killica and others.

The Building Trades Section of the Central Labor Union received the following credentials restored: Thomas Slavin: from the United Brotherhood of Progressive Varnishers No. 1. F. Kratz, Chas Walker, Jacob Bernard, William Espanschied, klenry V. Clayton: from the United Brotherhood of Progressive Varnishers No. 1. F. Kratz, Chas Walker, Jacob Bernard, William Espanschied, klenry V. Clayton: from the L. A. No. 34 of the United Brotherhood of Machinery Mouldern, Jas. K. Mowatt, Chas. Meyer, Francis McKenna, Chas. Bootmann and Archibald Gray from the Houseemiths' Union, John Killican and Andrew Burnett; from the United Woodcarver's Association, Alfred Tennis and Albert Schmeht, from the United Order of American Station of City and Credito. Union Endredit, Runaggni Bartolomeo and Spagnol Poinpeo from Progressive Painters' Union No. 1, Edward Conklin.

At a Chicago "Afternoon" Given for Sir Edwin Arnold. [From Life.] Hostess (fat, fair and-win, well do I remember, when a little child, seated on my dear mother's knee, listening as beauty made its impress on my childish mind and has never been effaced.

Sir Edwin (visibly astonished)—Madame, you surprise me. I had no idea women ma-tured so rapidly in the West.

WEBER PIANOS

WAREROOMS 108 FIFTH Ave., cor. West 16th St.,

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE. However much we have hoped to get fair prices for Fall Goods, the facts must be faced that the Fall has passed, and some articles that we though very fine when made up are now on hand a 'left-overs," and soon every toot of space will be required to show off the new styles; so, without regard to our pocket or designers' feelings, PLAIN FIGURES, ABOUT HALF COST, INVITE THE ECONOMICAL SHOPPERS. ALL ARE PER-

BUY OF THE MAKER. GEO. C. FLINT CO., FURNITURE MAKERS.

104, 106 AND 108 WEST 14TH ST.

FECT AND WELL MADE. Any imperfect goods go to auction "for account of whom it may con-